Dear Sir/Madam

I hereby confirm that Professor Cesare Del Mastro has come to the University of Lille on Friday 8 March 2024 to give a lecture entitled "Corps désiré, corps ennemi. The ambivalence of the erotic gesture in Caravaggio and Riboulet" as part of a seminar on "Aesthetics and Society" for Master 2 philosophy students, a course for which I am responsible.

The session lasted two hours and went extremely well. I remain at your disposal should you require any further information.

Best regards,

Martin Mees
